Cafeteria workers are waging a small but spirited drive for union recognition for 200 employees of a company that provides food service at two of New York's symbols of opulence: Goldman, Sachs & Company and the Metropolitan Opera. Most of the contractor's workers at Goldman, Sachs and the Met have signed cards saying they want to join the Hotel Employees and Restaurant Employees Union. But the company, Restaurant Associates, has declined to recognize their union and is instead insisting on an election supervised by the National Labor Relations Board. The workers fear that an elec

The cafeteria workers are two characters who first appered in the episode "Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy.". One of them is light orange with yellow hair and red lips, and the other one is purple with dark purple lips. They both wear white chef hats, light pink and light blue shirts, and dark indigo pants. They appear working at the cafeteria in Shady Shoals Rest Home. Mermaid Man tells the orange one to give extra broccoli to Barnacle Boy as he needs his vitamins. Meet the Cafeteria Workers. My School. Eating a healthy lunch at school is very important, and no one knows this better than the cafeteria workers! They help to plan the menus each week. The cafeteria workers cook the food and make sure it's warm and nutritious. They serve the food and then students pay for it at the cashier. They also make sure the lunch room is clean and neat.
