Every social failure in American culture must be blamed on homosexuals. In an established theocratic America, homosexuality, gay marriage, and abortion would be strictly forbidden by law. As the American vision for reconstruction takes hold, the British and, especially, the French come to embrace economic coordination not out of a commitment to liberalism but out of a desire to contain the German economic power that Washington is determined to unleash. Saving Europe to save America. If you asked the average American today, "What is the national motto of America?" I doubt that many of them would answer correctly. Of course, the answer is, "In God We Trust." Elizabeth Warren wants to impose a two-percent wealth tax on the richest Americans. The wealth of most rich people is in stocks and other investments they own. The 16th Amendment is very clear: "The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived."
