The Dangerous Alphabet is a picture book written by the award winning Neil Gaiman (whose creations include the film Mirrormask, the television series Neverwhere, the Sandman comic series and the novels American Gods and Anansi Boys) and illustrated by Gris Grimly. It is the story of boy, a girl and their pet gazelle who go on an adventure in a boat, braving monsters, pirates and other dangers. The book was in the children's section at my local library but I'm not sure whether it's really meant to be a children's book. The Dangerous Alphabet book. A is for Always, that's where we embark . . . Two children, treasure map in hand, and their pet gazelle sneak past their father, out of their house, and into a world beneath the city, where monsters and pirates roam. Will they find the treasure? Will they make it out alive?
