"He took a towel and tied it around his waist. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet" - John 13: 5. On this evening we begin The Sacred Paschal Triduum with the celebration of Thursday of the Lord's Supper. Fr. Stephen Hamiton reflects on the institution of the sacraments of the Holy Eucharist and Holy Orders on this most momentous night. The New Easter Triduum contains the complete texts for Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil, plus a selection of hymns. But it now. In the 86-page booklet, we will be confirmed that what he had revealed and promised was true. On this day, we celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord and our Easter Vigil. We share in a special way in the glory of the risen Christ. In this Liturgy of the Word, we can listen to the Old Testament narrative and rekindle our trust in the promise of redemption and home for men and women. EASTER is the high point of the entire liturgical cycle. It celebrates the central mystery of Christ's triumph over death and the cross by his resurrection. From the beginning of Christianity, the feast of the Resurrection of Christ has been celebrated as the most important and festive day of the whole year. Which day of the Easter Triduum is most impactful to you? Was there one celebration in particular that stirred your senses? Are there any Triduum customs in your culture?
