Its author, Joan Gray, says there are two kinds of congregations, those who row the boat and those who sail the boat. Spiritual Leadership for Church Officers helps leaders to discern and catch the wind (the Holy Spirit, of course) in the church's sails by making decisions on what God wants for the church, and God's will for the world. A great ancient/modern concept, very biblical. The book is both practical and inspirational -- and greatly needed. Moody Memorial Church. Spiritual Leadership by J. Oswald Sanders is a classic among the classics. I read it as a young Christian, later as a leader, and needed what's been taught in this book. I highly recommend it! Chip Ingram. President, Walk Thru the Bible. I first read Oswald Sanders's Spiritual Leadership as a young woman heading into ministry. We hope you enjoy this book from Moody Publishers. Positive postings move your book up the search list. If you got kids, family and are in church leadership, got neighbors and coworkers, let them know they need this book. This is a very powerful little book, for early-readers, addressing issues like homose...xuality, LGBT identification, traditional marriage and genders. These issues are addressed from a spiritual, emotional and scientific point of view without being boring or lengthy or even using sexually explicit terms as descriptors. The book helps a child to speak what God says about them, thus shaping their attitude and heart.
