Tricia Zoeller. He took her by the Walgreen's Pharmacy first and waited in the car while she ran inside. She snatched a big Sweet Leaf iced tea/lemonade from the fridge and Twizzlers from the candy aisle. The under...ear aisle was her next destination. With a sigh, she added the high-waisted granny panties to her stash. Seth ran into Ace Hardware next door to make a copy of the key and find Super Glue. After splitting a carnivore pizza between the two of them, Seth drove the car back to the Manor. First Born was accepted to the GVPL Emerging Authors Collection! Babies Don't Come With Manuals, but These Parenting Books Are Close Enough. Consider these your parenting cheat codes! By Dana Baardsen and Latifah Miles. First born This infant with her mother's eyes Is our first born. First child This baby I hold in my arms Is our first child. Her smile will warm me On a cold winter night And when life is stormy Her faith in me will make things right. First born Asleep in her crib now Is our first born. If the good Lord's willing He'll bless us with many more But our first born Is the child we've been praying for. First born This child I hold in my arms Is our first born.
