You'll get a lot of results, but each result will most likely only teach you very little grammar points, and the same ones at that. This fat book truly gives basic grammar with very, very in-depth explanations along with plenty of example sentences. The explanations are clear. There hasn't been one point in which the explanation just confused me. I'm taking Japanese 1 and 2 at my college this year and the classes cover probably only an eighth of this book.
