Port Mobile Alabama USA is Alabama state's only seaport. It is located on Mobile Bay (Gulf of Mexico's inlet) which is formed by Fort Morgan Peninsula (on the east) and Dauphin Island (on the west). The city covers an area of approx 413 km2 (159 mi2) and has population around 195,000 (metro around 415,000).Â The port and all its facilities are owned and managed by Alabama State Port Authority. All public terminals can handle various types of cargo ships (including container / boxships, bulk and breakbulk carriers, Ro-Ro ships (roll-on / roll-off).Â As all 2017 cruises were booked within a month, Carnival allowed travel agents to book itineraries out of Mobile into April 2019. In August 2017, Carnival signed a 1-year contract extension with the port (through December 2019).
