The purpose of this book is to explain International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS® Standards) and International Accounting Standards (IAS® Standards) at a level which is appropriate for students who are undertaking an intermediate course of study in financial reporting. It is assumed that the reader has already completed an introductory accounting course and is familiar with the basics of financial accounting. The objective of financial statements is to provide information about the financial position (statement of financial position), performance (statement of comprehensive income), and changes in financial position (statement of cash flows) of an entity that is useful to a wide range of users in making economic decisions. This book is a practical, no-nonsense guide to IFRS, backed up by plenty of worked examples to illustrate the requirements. It is designed for business calculations Mastering Financial Mathematics in Microsoft Excel®. It provides a step-by-step guide to transitioning to IFRS financial reporting and financial reporting stuff is not rocket science. Financial Statements: A Step-by-Step Guide. A practical guide for business calculations Mastering Financial Mathematics in Microsoft Excel®. Exce Practical Methods of Financial Engineering and Risk Management: Tools for Modern Financial. Certain pages from this book are designed for use in a group setting and are not suitable for individual work.