It's considered a complete Bible reference library in one volume, but what's interesting is it does this without having any commentary. Instead it has lists of topics and chain references throughout the Bible.Â Analyses of Bible Books. Bible Character Studies. These are biographical sketches and outlines of the prominent characters in the Bible.Â The NKJV edition of the Thompson Chain Reference Bible has a lot of the features that I've wanted to see the KJV have. Even though it's verse by verse it still retains the poetic setting. This is enough to allow the poetic text to stand apart from prose and give your eyes something else to see.
