

Conversations with American Women Writers // UPNE, 2004 // 9781584653486 // Sarah Anne Johnson // 2004 // 229 pages

The seventeen women interviewed by Sarah Anne Johnson are some of the most popular and accomplished writers at work today—award winners, critically acclaimed, popular with book clubs. Steeped in a thorough knowledge of each writer’s work, Johnson’s questions range from technical issues of craft to the nurturing of fictional ideas to the daily practice of writing. The authors offer insights into their own works that will delight their fans and also provide practical advice that will be cherished by aspiring writers. 55 thoughts on “Conversations with American Women Writers”. When we asked readers for their favourite books by women, many replied with “anything and everything written by Toni Morrison.” Here are but a few. Toni Morrison’s Beloved is the best book I have ever read. I heard of her just a month ago, from a Korean American friend. All I can say about her at this stage is that she knows me better than I do.
