

Gospel-Powered Parenting: How the Gospel Shapes and Transforms Parenting, 9781596381353, William P. Farley, P & R Pub., 2009, 233 pages, 2009

To see how the gospel reshapes parenting, let's first remind ourselves what the gospel is and what the gospel does. The gospel is the good news that God has inaugurated his reign on earth through the life, death, and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. When we repent and rely on Christ's righteousness instead of our own, his kingdom power transforms us, and we become participants in the community of the redeemed. United with Christ through his Spirit, we are adopted as God's heirs, and we gain a new identity that transcends every earthly status. Winner of the ECPA Book of the Year Award for Christian Living. In this life-giving book, Paul Tripp offers parents much more than a to-do list. Instead, he presents us with a big-picture view of God's plan for us as parents. Outlining fourteen foundational principles centered on the gospel, he shows that we need more than the latest parenting strategy or list of techniques. Rather, we need the rescuing grace of God's grace that has the power to shape how we view everything we do as parents.
