Vern Walker was elected Vice-Chair for Membership of the Risk Science and Law Specialty Group of the Society for Risk Analysis.

As president of Hofstra Law's Veterans Law Student Association, one of Rebecca Falk's responsibilities is to help organize the groups Veterans Legal Assistance Project (VLAP), a one-day free legal assistance clinic which is offered each semester for veterans. Through my involvement in VLAP, I've been able to connect with phenomenal attorneys and Hofstra Law faculty members and students who really care about pro bono work and community service. My involvement in VLAP has solidified to me that two integral parts of a law career should be giving back to our service members and the larger community and participating in programs where law students can gain valuable guidance and mentorship from local attorneys who set the bar for service and professionalism. This later became federal law, and Hofstra was subsequently recognized as a pioneer. Other forward-thinking programs and events followed, including the New Opportunities at Hofstra (NOAH) program, which was established the following year. NOAH is Hofstra's Arthur O. Eve Higher Education Opportunity Program. Hofstra University is accredited in 28 academic areas and 32 total areas.[31] Hofstra University offers 160 undergraduate and 170 graduate program options.[19]. Through Hofstra's clinics, law students can get hands-on training working in areas such as youth advocacy, community and economic development, and immigration. Hofstra is also home to a variety of research centers and institutes, including the Center for Applied Legal Reasoning, the Institute for the Study of Conflict Transformation and the Perry Weitz Institute for the Study of Mass Torts. Hofstra Law ranks #23 in terms of highest tuition among full-time law students ($59,214). We rank from a total of 283 tuition rates from 194 law schools, ranking twice those law schools that have different in-state and out-of-state tuition rates. #25 in Public Sector Salary. Hofstra Law is tied for #25 in terms of median starting salary among graduates working in government jobs or judicial clerkships at the federal or state level ($61,000). #54 in Library Size. Hofstra Law ranks #54 in terms of library size with 559,291 volumes or equivalents. #60 in Employment Rate at 10 Months. #82 in Emplo The Faculty of Law was one of the first faculties created in the Higher School of Economics. Economic and legal disciplines, new innovative courses, fundamental law disciplines and narrowly specialized courses are all equally important for the Faculty of Law. The Faculty's strength is the curriculum's focus on the practical, which prepares its graduates to successfully meet the demands of the labour market.
