It occurs here at the end of the Sermon on the Mount in 7:28. You will find it again in Matthew 11:1, 13:53, 19:1, and 26:1, each time at the end of an extended discourse by Jesus to His disciples. What you should note is that in one way or another, these five discourses all deal with the same theme: the Kingdom of heaven. This was the great burden of Jesus teaching " and we see it particularly evident here in the Sermon on the Mount. "Repent for the Kingdom of heaven is at hand." If we view this proclamation as not only Matthew's introduction to what follows but also a summary of it, then in Start by marking "The Illustrating Mirror, or a Fundamental Illustration of Christ's Sermon on the Mount: For All Lovers of the Truth to Examine Their Faith, and to Promote Their Observance of the Doctrines of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ (Classic Reprint)" as Want to Read: Want to Read saving!
