"Altai-Himalaya" is the record of his mission, just as his series of pictures "Tibetan Paths," "Banners of the East," "His Country," are records in terms of paint. In Russia, as secretary of the Society for the Encouragement of Arts, and later as director of the school of that society, he was an important agent in organizing and coordinating that native, new and powerful impulse which in painting, in music, in the drama and in the dance later spread throughout the civilized world: for it is not too much to say. Fatehpur-Sikri, Agra"rare chips of a departed culture. And the frescoes of Ajanta are already unsafe. All the remains of the constructions of Akbar have a veil of seeming sadness. People are Himalaya's most important asset and investing in them is vital to us. From giving them the creative freedom to push the boundaries of research to fostering a culture of open communication and diversity, we believe that our nurturing work environment brings out the best in our team and allows us to develop the best products. Info. An overview of the geography, economics, politics and culture of the region, the Illustrated Atlas of the Himalaya by David Zurick and Julsun Pacheco, is a full-colour, comprehensive atlas of contemporary land and life in the Earth's highest mountain range. The volume contains a unique collection of informative maps based on state-of-the-art cartography, which the authors have generously allowed Digital Himalaya to host online. We are very grateful to the authors for deciding to distribute a number of these maps for free public download and use. Zurick and Pacheco only request that when they a
