Like solemnities, feasts sometimes take precedence over the liturgy for the day they fall on. Not all feasts are of equal stature. The "feasts of the Lord" take precedence over Sundays of Christmas and Ordinary Time, but the feasts of the Blessed Virgin Mary do not. All feasts take precedence over all weekdays except Ash Wednesday; Weekdays of Holy Week (including the Triduum) and days within the octave of Easter. MEMORIALS: Lower in importance than solemnities and feasts are memorials. There are 159 memorials listed in the general calendar, and six more that are celebrated only in t... The liturgical celebrations of solemnities, feasts, and memorials enhance the richness of the Church's calendar.

Wednesday, February 26, 2020 & Ash Wednesday It is a common misconception that Ash Wednesday is a Holy Day of Obligation. However, it's a great way to start the Lenten season! An exception would be the feasts of the Lord which occur on Sundays in Ordinary Time and Sundays in the Christmas season. For example, the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord (February 2) has its own first vespers. On these days, the Gloria is recited but not the Creed. Obligatory memorials must be observed whereas optional memorials do not have to be observed. For example, the memorial of St. John Bosco (January 31) is obligatory while the memorial of St. Blase (February 3) is optional.
