On small areas, watercolor markers work great. If your area is rather large, switch to crayons or even colored chalk or pastels.Â Put a little ditto fluid on a tissue, rub across the mark and presto, its gone! Also, dry transfer markers work great on lamination and can easily be wiped off. June Monthly Idea Book Teachers Friend, a Scholastic Company 11 LAMINATION: (continued) 3. Laminating cut-out characters can be tricky. If you have enlarged an illustration onto poster board, simply laminate first and then cut it out with scissors or an art knife.
