

Basic Data Book, 1968, Volume 968, - United States. Bureau of Prisons

This book is the work of part of the international staff which has been brought together at this Institute in Stockholm during the past two years; they come from many countries and disciplines. The aim has been to produce a factual and balanced account of a controversial subject—the arms race and attempts to stop it. Whereas from 1960 to 1968, world military expenditure rose 6 per cent a year in volume, developing. For definition, see footnote a to chart 1.8. 23.
