Edition The Occult, Witchcraft & Magic An Illustrated history, Christopher Dell What first drew me to.Â Not only that though, I loved how it had a brief overview of many forms of witchcraft over the years. Areas I never would have looked at are in the book which I think is great. I really enjoy the layout of the book and how everything has been grouped together. It keeps your interest going throughout. It starts of with an introduction to the book that spans from page 7 - 19. The introduction itself is interesting. It gives you some information and terms used and what to expect from the book. I think for beginners this is a great book since it looks at so many areas.
